

Corporate Cabin Crew Recurrent - Paris

Corporate Flight Attendants

Course Information

Course Description –2 Day Course

Corporate Cabin Crew Recurrent is an interactive, scenario-based overview of the FAA training requirements taught at the Part 135 level of responsibility and follows many of the EASA Aircrew Regulation Annex V (Part CC) training requirements.

Off-Site Recurrent training is available. Please call the Learning Center for details

First Aid and Aeromedical Training is available as an additional module.

Contact the Learning Center for more details.

FlightSafety Material Number 303423

Ground School Course Modules Hours

Aircraft Fires and Fire Fighting	0.75
Surface Contamination	0.25
Crew Resource Management (CRM)	0.50
Decompression & High Altitude Physiology.....	1.00
Ditching & Survival Equipment	1.00
Emergency Equipment	0.50
Evacuation Procedures	1.00
HAZMAT (Will Not Carry)	0.50
Hijacking and Security	1.00
Illness and Injury	1.00

Ground School Training Hours7.50

Drill Course Modules Hours

Evacuation Scenario Drills.....	4.50
Fire Fighting Drills	1.00
Sea Survival Drills	1.50

Drill Hours7.00

Academic Course Modules Hours

Review and Exam	1.00
-----------------------	------

Total Hours..... 15.50

Approvals and Limitations

Meets minimum recommendations for ICAO and IS-BAO certification
 Training is approved under Part 142 Training Certificate
 Follows many of the requirements of EASA Aircrew Operations Regulation
 Modification to meet the requirements of other regulatory authorities or operational parts is available.

Training Locations & Contact Information

Paris, France • +33 1-49-92-1919 • fax +33 1-49-92-1892 • paris@flightsafety.com